been on a visit to some friends in the afternoon, and while on their return in the evening, the horse, which was rather headstrong, in descending a hill, became unmanagable, and dashed away at the top of his speed among the large rocks and stones lying at the side of the road, shivering the wagon to pieces, and throwing the ladies with the greatest violence against a stone wall, breaking the skull and one arm of Mrs. Bristoll, who has since died, splitting the nose and otherwise bruising the face and head of Mrs. Clark, who however will probably recover. The daughter of Mrs. Clark leaped from the wagon and sustained but little injury.

COTTON FACTORY BURNT .- The Pochassett Cot. ton Factory, situated in Cranston, on the middle road to East Greenwich, four miles from this city, was burnt down on Wednesday afternoon last; the fire was first discovered in the picker-room, where it made so much headway that all attempts to extinguish it were unavailing. The factory contained 1,000 spindles. Nothing was saved. It was insured at the Providence Washington Insurance Office, in this city, for $1,500. The house and store near by took fire a number of times, in several places, but by great exertions they were saved. The loss was about $5,000. [Providence Journal.

NORTHAMPTON AND SPRINGFIELD RAILROAD. We understand that the contracts have been taken at 12 or 15 per cent. under the estimates of the engineer. [Hampshire Gazette.

GREAT HAUL OF FISH .- A seine was drawn at Narragansett Pier last Wednesday, containing the largest number of fish of any haul on record in that part of the State, so famous for piscatory enterprise. It was found necessary to place smaller seines within the large one to relieve it, and when our informant left about 1,600,000 manhaden had been landed, and it was supposed that 400,000 remained to be drawn ashore. The seine belongs to Jonathan N. Hazard and Thurston Providence Jour. Robinson.

A Mormon Shot .- The St. Louis Republican of the 16th inst. states that a man was shot just back of Warsaw, Ill. on Friday previous. The Guard stationed there saw three men, supposed to be horse thieves, fired on them and one fell .-He was a Mormon, and they were retreating at the time. This looks a little like shooting rather too fest. It shows the feeling toward Mormons in that quarter.

The Whig meeting of Saturday evening last was one of the most immense assemblage we ever saw. Senator Barrow, of Louisiana appeared on the stand and made an able speech. He spoke in appropriate terms of the great and unexpected Whig victory in Louisiana. At each mention of the name of his State, the most un-bounded and Heaven-ascending cheers burst forth from the large multitude. [Louisville Journal.

We did not learn who they were, nor did we understand what cause created the meeting. The particulars of the meeting are, as given by one of the seconds, as follows:-They met at stations, and were ordered by the commanding second to fire; they wheeled round, and in the agerness to get a fire, the pistol of one of the parties flew out of his hand, the other fired, but without hitting his mark. The one who lost his pistol ran at the other, seized him, snatched a cane from a bystander and dealt several severe blows upon his opponent's head and face, injurng his nose very much. This is all we could eather of the matter and more than we wished to know of it. [Cincinnati Herald 23.
